A yoga instructor meets up with us and helps us collect energy from our surroundings with meditation and breathing exercises. This can be done at any location and could even by done at night to enjoy from the midnight sun. Summer yoga is a short but effective moment to heal the soul and bring wholeness to the group.